PHILHARMONIC CLUB HOLDS A RECITAL

PLEASANT MUSICAL AFFAIR TO CULTIVATE LOCAL TALENT.

Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moore, occurred the first of a series of evening entertainments to be given by the Philharmonic section of the Tonopah woman's club. The numbers given showed careful and mature preparation and reflected great credit upon the participants and the music section as a whole.

The program was opened by the rendition of the "Euryanthe Overture" by von Weber, arranged for four hands, for piano. This was followed by Wilfred Bendall's beautiful cantata for ladies' voices, "The Lady of Shalott," which was artistically and effectively rendered by the entire choral division of the section. The third number on the program was a select reading by Mrs. Steele, who very graciously responded with a greatly appreciated encore number. The programme was closed by a second duet for pianoforte, "The Venetian Regatta," by Franz Liszt, which, like the opening piano number, was beautifully interpreted and artistically rendered.

The Philharmonic section with its various subdivisions, meets weekly for the serious study of music and musical history in all its branches, and has now entered well into its second year's work. It is purely educational in its scope, and its membership is confined to the music-loving ladies of Tonopah, who see in good music and its advancement in this community one of the stepping stones to a higher moral, intellectual and artistic standard of life, and its influence is already being felt. While its active membership is limited to members of the club, really seriously minded students of the public schools are accepted provisionally as associate members, and accorded the full benefits of the section's work, and their entertainments.

It is gratifying to the citizens of Tonopah to know that the city has quite a number of very talented and highly musically educated ladies who, while not so frequently heard in public, are glad to contribute the best of their knowledge and talents in a concerted educational movement, such as the Philharmonic section has developed into.

AMUSEMENTS

"CAPT. RACKET" AT NEVADA.

In the report of the Knights of Columbus benefit at the Nevada theater the star of the east and trainer of the company was overlooked. Full credit is due Mr. J. D. Scott for his clever impersonation of the irascible old uncle who makes so much trouble for the families of his relatives. The character was presented with an absolute finish that indicated strong professional tendencies. The personality of the player was so completely submerged in his part that few of his acquaintances in the audience recognized the young high school professor on the stage. His makeup was excellent, his rendition was clever and his general appearance was superb. Mr. Scott is responsible for the success of the entertainment, as it was largely due to his enthusiasm and indefatigable energy that the rehearsals were conducted.

BUTLER THEATER.

A large crowd witnessed a very interesting programme at the Butler theater last evening. Tonight will be shown a programme out of the ordinary—a three-reel Lubin feature entitled "When the Earth Trembled." This is a story written around the San Francisco earthquake and many of the scenes are actually taken on the ground. In addition there will be an Edison drama entitled "The Story of the Willow Pattern," a legend of old China, something new in motion pictures, shown with excellent optical atmosphere, the whole being produced in a border consisting of a plate edge.

Sunday the next of the series of "The Adventures of Kathlyn."

ANOTHER COUNTERFEIT BILL IN CIRCULATION

Another counterfeit $10 bill has been discovered to be in circulation in San Francisco, is the announcement made by the secret service. The notes are copies of the Crocker National bank series of 1902-1908. It is printed from photo-etched plates, and is a second edition of the counterfeit $10 note of the same bank bearing date of October 10, 1911. The back of the note is very botchy, making it rather easy to detect.

Constitutional amendments providing for the abolition of the state senate and proportional representation in the house will be submitted to the voters of Oregon at the next election.

Madison Lake, Minn.
"Gentlemen:—In December, 1913, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which confined me several weeks each time to my bed. My doctor advised me to go west. In November I started for Denver, Col. At the first attack I met Michael Brady, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alternative. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1914, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 120 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alternative for my health."
